

From Montana, USA- Doug Adkins – The Whiskey Salesman

Powerful vocals, exciting stage show, top tour band, personality and enthusiasm to electrify your audience! That is what you can expect from one of the most accomplished veterans in country music. Growing up in Montana USA, Doug formed his musical roots around what is today known as Honky Tonk, an exciting mixture of traditional country, modern country, blues and Southern Rock. Blending the styles together while focusing on Traditional Roots has become his art form!

Averaging over 60 shows per year since 2000 and having recorded 7 CDs of original music, Doug performs 50 shows per year in Europe from the largest festivals to the smallest clubs in countries like Switzerland, France, Germany, Denmark, Austria, Sweden, Norway and even Poland. In addition, each year, the Doug Adkins (The Whiskey Salesman) tours 20 to 30 dates in the U.S. through the Rocky Mountain Region where he originally began his career.

Doug's song, "Whiskey Salesman" was 1 of 5 finalists for the "2008 Best Country Song" by the Independent Music Awards. A couple other successes over the past years were a #1 ranking on the U.K. based Hot Disk for 4 weeks with the single "Whiskey Salesman," followed by a #4 ranking on the U.K. Hot Disk charts with the single "Window Shoppin," and a #12 ranking for the single "Gotta Be Strong."

With a new CD being released in Winter 2009/2010, a top tour band, and an exciting stage show with powerful vocals makes Doug Adkins a consideration for every event!

According to a promoters budget the bandsize can be adapted from Trio to 6-piece Band. The 4-piece Band is used the most.
