

As a songwriter, Overstreet has written and co-written 27 top ten songs, his first being George Jones', Same Ole Me. Numerous other artists have recorded his songs including Randy Travis, singing On the Other Hand, Diggin Up Bones and Forever and Ever, Amen. Tanya Tucker topped the charts with One Love at a Time and My Arms Stay Open All Night and then teamed up with Paul Davis and Overstreet with the hit, I Won't Take Less Than Your Love. The late Keith Whitley, and after him, Alison Kraus, recorded When You Say Nothing at All, The Judds sang Love Can Build A Bridge and Kenny Chesney belted out She Thinks My Tractor's Sexy. Other hits have been recorded by Glen Campbell, Pam Tillis, Mel Tillis, Travis Tritt, The Forester Sisters, Marie Osmond, Michael Martin Murphey, and countless others. When You Say Nothing at All was released in the major motion picture, Notting Hill, starring Julia Roberts and Hugh Grant. It has also been released on the movie soundtrack, sung by the UK artist, Ronan Keating, which became a major hit outside the Country Music Field. Paul Overstreet has written 510 BMI registered songs of which 29 have been awarded. Paul Overstreet has recorded many CD's as his own artist and 8 of his BMI-registered Songs have been awarded.

As an artist, Overstreet has written and recorded many songs himself. You Can't Stop Love was the debut single for the trio S.K.O. (Schuyler, Knobloch and Overstreet) on M.T.M. Records and neared the top of the charts. That album produced two other top ten hits as well. Overstreet's first solo project began when RCA released Sowin' Love. The five singles released from this album were all top ten hits, including the title cut, Sowin' Love, Paul's "signature" song All The Fun, and his first number one, Seein' My Father in Me. The second album, Heroes, included the hits Daddy's Come Around, If I Could Bottle This Up, Heroes and Billy Can't Read, which became the theme song for the CMA/CMT Project Literacy. The next album Love is Strong, gave Paul his first #1 song on Christian radio with the the cut and gave him another chart topper with There But For The Grace of God Go
